

3RD ANNUAL

Black Maternal & Infant Health Conference

HEALING THE WATER

Transforming Systems for Black Maternal & Infant Health

REGISTER NOW!

This one-day conference brings together healthcare professionals, policymakers, advocates, researchers, parents and community leaders to address disparities and improve birth outcomes in the Black community. Through evidence-based dialogue, shared experiences and best practices, we'll explore innovative strategies — from professional collaborations to grassroots efforts — that support Black birthing persons and families.

Come connect, learn and be part of a collective movement toward more equitable, inclusive care and healthier communities!
